

Buddy Thompson

August 15, 2020

Buddy (“Bud”) Thompson, beloved fur baby of Alan and Ann Thompson, passed away on August 15, 2020.

Although Buddy was with his pet parents for just two years, he gave them so many happy memories. One of their favorites was when he helped care for a kitten named “Ollie”, who Buddy helped raise. They grew to be inseparable; it was a joy to watch them! Ollie and Buddy were comforting each other until the end.

Buddy didn’t have a favorite toy, but he loved going for a ride and being with his family. He dearly loved his brother, Ollie. As long as Buddy’s humans were with him, he was a happy boy. He loved to sleep in front of the couch, on his bed, and beside his mom’s side of the bed.

As his pet parents shared, “Buddy will always be remembered for the gentle and endless love he gave to all.”

In addition to Alan and Ann, Buddy is survived by pet siblings, Princess, Molly and Ollie; as well as friends Patty and Dale, and Carolyn and Kevin.

Buddy was preceded in death by Little Bear, Shana, Shadrack, Meshack, Tiny, Quay, Sabrina, Diamond and many more.

“ I came to know Buddy when I stopped at the fruit market and he was across the street in need of attention. I called him over to offer water, but he had other plans. He ran around me and jumped in the passenger seat! I went over to get him out and he jumped in the back. So I went to the back and he jumped in the front! I could see there was no point in this so I offered him water, he wasn't doing anything but holding his ground, so I took him home with me. Well you know the rest of the story. I wouldn't have changed a thing. He was the sweetest fellow I ever met and loyal. We had a little Pomeranian at the time who was ill but that didn't matter to Buddy he loved her like he knew her all his life and we had several cats and they all grew to love each other as well. It was as if we had raised him from a puppy. He fit in like a glove.

I will never forget a hot July day that I called “Hey Buddy come here” and he ran over and jumped in my truck. And that's how he got his name. Buddy, you will be forever in my heart. Love Mommy & Daddy and the little kitten you helped raise “Ollie” misses you dearly as well as the others.
