

Lucky Sutula

July 13, 2004 - December 3, 2012

On December 3, 2012 we had to say goodbye to our best friend, Lucky. Her mom and dad, Mike and Donna, and brother, Chris, will miss her terribly.

Lucky loved the woods behind her home. If we forgot to take her on her daily walk there, she would remind us. She had many friends in her neighborhood.

She loved chasing squirrels out of her yard, eating her favorite Krispy treats, and going for car rides. Lucky took many trips with Dad to Chicago and to the lake. Everytime I left the house she would look up at me as if to ask, "Can I go?".

Lucky was the most well behaved little girl.

I will always remember the day she died. Knowing it would be soon, we took a walk together in the woods. I sat down to cry, and she, who never stopped to pause there, sat down beside me with her head on my knee until I stopped crying. Lucky was also saying goodbye.

I know she was grateful to her adopted brother, Chris, for rescuing her from the cold and to her Dad who took his "Lucky Girl" in and fell in love with her. We will miss our girl!

“ Lucky was a very friendly neighbor who always had a wagging tail and a awesome devotion to his parents, Donna and Mike . We'll always remember him as he loved to visit the woods near his home. Our thoughts are with you. The Volks & Kipper
