

Madison Long

May 1, 2000 - January 4, 2011

My faithful, loyal and true companion, MADISON, departed this, her earthly home, on Tuesday, January 4, 2011, after a courageous battle with congestive heart failure.

Her kind soul, gentle spirit and beautiful golden eyes will be greatly missed by all of us who knew and loved her. She will be especially missed by her best "forever friend" Flashy.

MADISON, I know that you are enjoying the warm sunshine on your precious little face, and the feel of the cool green grass on your paws, as you run and play now in your new heavenly home. I will be looking forward to the day that we are united once again at the Rainbow Bridge.

I LOVE YOU!

You will be sad, I understand.
Don't let your grief then stay your hand.
For this day, more than all the rest,
Your love for me must stand the test.
I know in time that you will see
The kindness that you did for me.
Although my tail its last has waved,
From pain and suffering I've been saved.

Not the least hard thing to bear when they go from us, these quiet friends, is that they carry away with them so many years of our own lives...

“ Deborah, please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I'm certain that your beloved Madison had a most wonderful life with you and your family. I just lost my baby Sam May 16th and the hurt is sometimes unbearable. Please know my heart shares your sorrow. I came across this poem that I find comforting. I hope it gives you comfort also:

Grieve not,
nor speak of me with tears,
but laugh and talk of me
as if I were beside you...
I loved you so-
'twas Heaven here with you.

“ Sweet Madison.... You have left your paw prints everywhere, especially in your favorite chair. In our hearts you will always be; now healthier and pain free. Although you will no longer meet your Mommy at the door, your memory, love and devotion will be with her ever more.

Until we meet again, sweet baby girl.....

“ Sweet Sweet Debra, What a great memorial for your girl Madison! I remember the first time I met her in our journey together with the rescue of Ginger. You gave Madison a great life and she was so blessed to have you as a Mommy! Cherish the wonderful memories of Madison until you meet again...
