

Meesha Davis

August 10, 2006 - December 10, 2019

Meesha (nicknamed “Mimi”) was born to her pet parents Jerome and Kimberley Davis on August 10, 2006 in Bloomfield, Indiana. She passed over The Rainbow Bridge on December 10, 2019.

Mimi’s favorite things were her squeaky giraffe and being outside. She had a favorite place to sleep, on Jerome’s legs while he was sleeping. The very least thing she liked to do was take her medicine.

As Mimi’s pet mom, Kimberley, shared, “Mimi had such a human side to her...that is why I miss her so much. She would always come to me while I was talking to another person and would bite my pant leg so I would pick her up. She would look from one person to another, as if she was reading our lips and understood what we were saying. She always had to be in the conversation. Any time I would try to give her something, she would sniff it and gently nudge it back with her nose, as if to say ‘no thanks’. She was such a social butterfly, and everyone loved her.”

In addition to her pet parents, Mimi is survived by two human brothers, Xavier and Kent Davis; and her pet half-brother, Luther, a Yorkie. Other family and friends include her human niece, Autumn Davis; breeders Jeff and Coelia Duzan; and family friend, Kyle Mathis.

“ It has been a little over a month...I still miss you. Some days are a little better than others, but I never go a day without thinking of you. I loved you all your life...and I love you now. I miss you so very much, and it shatters my heart to think of how such a little being left such a huge hole in my heart. I love you Meesha, Mom
