

Apollo Gentry

November 23, 2024

Apollo ("Big Boy", "Poppa", "Big Baby") was born in May 2015, and passed on November 23, 2024. He is survived by his pet parent, Rozanne, and human sister, Chelsa.

Apollo's favorite toy was Sunny. His favorite activities were watching TV, watching birds on the deck, and going for walks. His least favorite thing was the VET, and having to stay inside. His favorite places to sleep were his bed, ottoman, and mom's bed.

Favorite memories of Apollo: Him becoming mine. The kisses he would raise his head for, curling up in my arms. His love for me and my love for him.

“ Apollo was at times aloof when I visited my sister but once he figured out I was ok ahead came by too wrap around my legs and purr as I would pet him. He would jump up where I was to be close and never seemed territorial or unfriendly after that. I always looked forward to seeing Apollo when visiting my sister. I too shall miss Apollo!
