

Ava Binkerd

November 23, 2025

Ava, aka Aba Daba Waba Saba, Abe, Big nose, the goodest girl, came into my life January 6, 2021 after a very bad start in hers. She never gave up on humans and became the most loyal, beautiful German Shepherd I could ever ask for. I lost her November 23, 2025 quite suddenly, I will never know what really happened. She loved Momma Natalie, her furbrother Oliver, who sorely misses her, and fursister Lolli. Her favorite toy was a "Who Hash" can and her "Lamb Chop" that she would squeak when she was excited because her emotions were so big and that's how she expressed them. She loved "walkies" most of all. Her least favorite thing in the world were kitties. She loved to sleep anyway her Mom was. All of my memories of Ava will be cherished as long as I am here. Run free, Ava, you are whole now.
