

Bacon Allen-Raymer

April 24, 2024

Bacon Allen-Raymer (nicknames: Beaks, Beanie, Buddy, Precious Paws, and Turkey Boy) was born in March of 2008 to a stray cat my mom took in. He sadly lost a 4 month battle to Renal Carcinoma and left us to cross Rainbow Bridge on April 24th, 2024. His pet parents are Ashley Allen and Brandon Raymer. His pet grandma is Janet Allen and pet grandpa Gary Allen. He had a chihuahua sister Nellie, who passed shortly before him. His favorite toys were catnip mice and anything with strings. He enjoyed sunbathing at the backdoor, laying in Mom's lap, eating, and doing everything Mom did. His least favorite thing was taking his medication and car rides. He loved to sleep right between Mom and Dad. He was quite a unique cat as he was polydactile (had thumbs) and was very vocal.

Mommy and Daddy both miss you more than the moon and back. We will love you and cherish your memory forever. We'll never forget all the times you made us laugh like stepping on Mom's avocado toast (you did not like cleaning that off your paws) and the time you thought you'd help Mom with her oil painting but ended getting paint all over you.

We love you so much Buddy!
