

Bailey Andrzejewski

August 26, 2007 - December 24, 2020

Bailey ("Bay Bay") Andrzejewski, beloved fur baby of Stacey and Rob Andrzejewski, crossed over The Rainbow Bridge on December 24, 2020. She was born on August 26, 2007.

Her favorite toy was a ball or a stuffed animal. Bailey loved to be with her family and favorite people. She loved to go outside and play fetch. Bailey was always up for a snuggle and wanted to be with her family all the time. She loved playing with her stuffed toys and ripping them apart. She would always steal them from her fur brother, Toby. Bailey enjoyed being with her human sibling, Darcy, always waiting for her by her bedroom door. She loved to play tag with Darcy; it was a game they played when they were both small and continued into their teen years.

One of Bailey's not-so-favorite things was wood floors; she hated walking on them!

Bailey had a favorite place to sleep and that was with Darcy in her room. She would snuggle up and get as close to her as she could. Sometimes, Bailey would flop on her, and other times, she would stretch out almost pushing Darcy off of the bed.

As Stacey shared, "Bailey was so much fun, she always kept us guessing what she would do next. When she was young, she had what we have named the 'Stuffed Animal Massacre' with Darcy's toys. She and Darcy playing tag was always a favorite thing to watch. Bailey was always so sweet and my constant shadow. When she was little, she would sneak very carefully into bed with me to snuggle. She always wanted to have pets and loving and, if you were fortunate enough to earn her trust, you became one of her favorite people. Of course, there are so many more great memories, I could write a book, she was such a wonderful and special dog, and will always be the baby of our family."

In addition to her pet parents, Stacey and Rob, and human sibling, Darcy, Bailey is survived by her pet siblings Sakari and Toby (dogs); and Rosetta and Dudley (cats). Other family and friends include Grandma (Brenda, one of her favorites); Granddaddy (Gene, one of her favorite people); Kathryn (Aunt, one of her favorites); Nikita (Friend, earned her trust and became one of her favorites); and Gavin and Lauren (Cousins; Bailey loved kids).
