

Bentley Williams

November 13, 2014 - October 5, 2024

Bentley was born 11/13/14 and crossed the Rainbow Bridge on 10/5/24. He is survived by his pet parents, Ken & Beth Williams. Bentley A.K.A. Mr. Bentley was The King of the castle.

He merely let us, his pet parents, reside in his house. We, “the peasants”, were enslaved to his wishes. He had control of the whole house. He would sleep where he wanted and when he wanted, which was pretty much ALL day. He would get VERY vocal when he felt his food bowl needed some food because you could kind of see a speck of the bottom of his bowl from him eating a few bites. He loved his morning treats and would wait for mom to give them to him as she passed through the kitchen. Ken was “his human” and Bentley would also get VERY vocal when he wanted his dad’s attention. He knew when it was time for Dad to go to work in the evening and would wait for him by the step where Ken put his work boots on. Waiting, often impatiently, for some lovins and belly rubs. But don’t let the loving cute attention side fool you. He could turn on you at the drop of a hat and become Jekyll and Hyde. Bentley was known for opening drawers and taking EVERYTHING out of them.

Sometimes just because he could, other times because he was letting you know he was not happy about something. He loved to chew on plastic bags and was a fanatic about the plastic that held bottles of pop together. Bentley was also VERY judgmental. He would often give you that side eye and we knew he was thinking "what are you doing in my presence."

Beth would often get this look when she would sit beside Ken on the couch. How dare she sit by his human.

It is hard to say goodbye and our hearts hurt but we are comforted by knowing you will be reunited with your fur sister and fur brother, Bailey and Bosco.

Mom & Dad love you forever and always.
