Gone but never forgotten.

Bently Pero

July 27, 2012 - March 26, 2024

He was the best dog anyone could ask for. Bently was more than a good boy; he was a guardian of our family, a best friend to our kids, a big brother a couple times over, and my sidekick in watching over our home and everyone. When he was younger he'd like to get loose and run the neighborhood with him either finding his way home when he got tired or our son chasing him down eventually. It was part of a game to him but we always worried about him and he eventually gave up his running away ways. He also enjoyed chasing any manner of small animal including but not limited to: cats, squirrels, rabbits, and anything else that moved inside of our yard. Like the best watch dog ever he'd bark at people walking on the sidewalk blocks away. He enjoyed all manner of snacks particularly chips, meats, yogurts, celery, whipped cream, shredded cheese, and peanut butter or whatever he could get his paws on (whether it was offered or otherwise). He loved little kids for this reason because they were the perfect height to "share"/steal their snacks. We would walk together around the perimeter of our yards regularly; stopping at every corner to look around.

Today (3/26/2024) we took our last patrol. Despite being in pain and barely being able to breathe he did it anyway. He was a fighter who didn't want to let go. I am so glad we found each other and he helped our family feel even more like family.

He had the cutest floppy single ear on one side, had a funny dance to greet you when you came home, would smile when he would get petted, and would be quick to give you a shake of his paw for a share of a snack. He was warm and loving as he was defensive and strong.

At the end we were all with him as peace finally washed over him.

Sleep well handsome man. I'll see you again. I'll miss that smile.

Love you my good boy.
