

Bixby Bradford

November 11, 2000 - September 24, 2013

Bixby, also known as Bix or Bixy, was born to Happy & Oreo on November 11, 2000 and joined the family of Diana & Jerry Bradford on January 9, 2001.

Diana & Jerry got Bixby from Melanie McGee, a breeder of show dogs.

Bixby's grandmother was a Champion. Diana & Jerry picked him up on their way to Florida for the winter. He spent 3 months in the fifth-wheeler enjoying all the people in the campgrounds.

Bix loved everyone and was always friendly and never barked at anyone. His favorite toys to play with were his pink ball and small stuffed dog that came with him from the breeder.

Bixby enjoyed taking walks and greeting everyone he met. He loved riding in the car, being close to the family and playing fetch. Bix wasn't too fond of staying home alone!

Bixby's favorite places to sleep were under the footrest of the recliners; in the front hall in front of the register, with his feet tucked under the hall runner; and in mom and dad's bed. His favorite foods were his regular dog food; Milk Bones; and he loved a little cheese now and then.

The fondest memories of Bix are racing around the house Shih Tzu style, playing fetch with all his toys, taking trips together, and going to McDonald's and eating in the car so he could be with his mom and dad.

A few words that would describe Bixby are his gentleness, intelligence, playful, sweet, friendly, fun, entertaining, inquisitive, companionable and curious.

His beautiful coat, large beautiful eyes, and handsome face will be missed by many.
