

Boots Hendrick

September 29, 2022

Boots Hendrick was born in 2006, and passed on September 29, 2022. Boots was the companion of Jeanie Hendrick and the late Tom Hendrick. After Tom passed away, Boots kept Jeanie company on the lonely, sad days.

Boots was the Queen of the Castle. She was finicky and could be mischievous, but Boots was loved beyond measure. Jeanie's great-grandkids will miss coming to the house and going around trying to find where she had hidden herself away from them (usually under Jeanie's bed). Everyone knew she was grandma's kitty.

Rest easy over the Rainbow Bridge, Boots, until we are together again.
