

Buddy Chappell

October 17, 2019

Buddy Chappell, fur baby of Timothy and Tina Chappell, passed away October 17, 2019. Buddy was rescued from the Anderson streets on September 18, 2019. Nicknamed "Buddy Boy" and "Foxy Boy", Buddy arrived at his home thanks to the generous help of Ashley Cox and Bella Cross. His fur mom, Tina, spent 13 hours cleaning up this sweet boy so he could have a better life.

Buddy enjoyed time with his humans and fur siblings. One of his favorite activities was being a shadow to his mommy. Buddy did not like it when his mommy left the room! His favorite place for naps was on the back of the sofa by Tina.

Tim and Tina's favorite memory of Buddy was, after those 13 hours of brushing, washing and cleaning him, Buddy ran through the house so happy with a huge grin on his face! He knew pure love and happiness of knowing he found the home that was proudly his, now and forever his, Buddy's forever home.

In addition to his fur parents, survivors include Hunter Hughes, his human sister; fur sisters Phthalo Blue Hues and Ginger; and fur brother Grandpa.

Play in the clouds, my Foxy Boy. Rest in peace.

Love you, Buddy Boy.
