

Cashua Hendrix-Wilson

May 24, 2011 - October 21, 2022

Cashua "Booger-Butt" Hendrix-Wilson was born May 24, 2011; and passed on October 21, 2022.

Cashua had many nicknames: Booger Butt, Tumper (Correct Spelling), Bashua, Fart Butt, Hims, Slobber box, and My Baby. He is survived by his pet parents, Chris Wilson and Larry Hendrix-Wilson. Other family and friends are: Stepdad Brian Smith, Aunt Mary Hendrix, Uncle Brian Stiles, cousins Adilyn and Kaliya Stiles.

Favorite Toys: Giant Stuffed Sloth and Kong Toy with peanut butter.

Favorite Activities: Walking with his walking-branch, laying in the yard howling at sirens, laying in random people's yards and refusing to get up, laying in weird positions on the bed, playing with his sloth, getting attention from anyone and everyone, and eating sky raisins (flies).

Least Favorite Thing: Being blocked from getting his attention.

Favorite Place to Sleep: Next to his dads in bed, on his own queen size bed, or in the smallest, most cramped space he could find.

Favorite Memories: When we first met him, seeing him spend time with his best friend, our niece Adilyn, His grandma's crazy antics, his big, awkward self trying to be a lap dog, car rides to see his dad on lunch, and the trip to the play field where he didn't even play. He just wanted to lay in the field.

Cashua was the best thing that ever happened to us. He really touched the lives of everyone that he met, including many people around the world. He was such a sweet, loving dog. He loved, and was loved by, everyone and everything that would give him even a second of attention. He just wanted his belly rubs. He wasn't just a pet. He was our baby. Our world. He is at peace now and will be dearly missed. We will cherish every single memory we have of him for the rest of our lives.

Tribute Wall

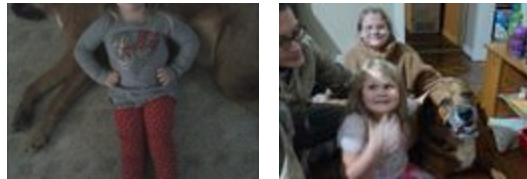

“ Cash was and always will be my baby. He was the light of my life. He was a part of my entire adult life. When everything was always changing, he was a constant. I will forever miss my home-from-work cuddles and my nightly bedtime cuddles.

“ My baby...my gift to Chris. We just miss you so much. It's so hard walking into this house and not hearing you wagging your tail, waiting for me to come give you a beggin strip. I know we ended your pain and suffering and I just can't wait for the day I see you again. I love you baby.
