Chocalat' (Choca) Whorley

"Chocalat' (nicknamed "Choca", "puppy girl", "chicky-poo") was purebred toy poodle born to her loving pet parents on September 18, 2007 in Oneonta, Alabama. She crossed the Rainbow Bridge on April 21, 2023.

Choca's favorite toys included her little fox, a gift from furless brother. She played with it often and it accompanied her on every car trip (she was quite a traveler). She also loved her lion, hunting rabbit and beaver, which she named "Bucky" (squeak toys). As a puppy, it was often her mission to remove every squeaker she encountered in every toy she owned, one by one—by any means necessary—she was a skilled squeaker remover.

Choca loved relaxing in the sunroom and sitting in the back yard swing with her best friend (and pet dad) whom she adored. She also loved to feel the wind on her face; whenever she came outside on a nice day, she would stand and feel the breeze on her face. Needless to say, Choca enjoyed her life to the fullest. She was always such a happy puppy. A lot of times after eating her dinner, she enjoyed rolling back and forth on her little sofa. She loved being silly and knew how to enjoy the simple things in life. Choca often said she felt the world was too serious and she prayed that one day humans would take their cues from the animals, put faith in God and simply enjoy the beauty around us and love one another. Wise words from our little pup.

Choca is survived by her pet parents, her furless brother, furless sister, several aunts, uncles and cousins. Other family and friends include 4 furless nieces, a furless nephew, her entire veterinary family of over 15 years, and her breeders Jacques and Vickie. Choca also had many loving fur-friends on Instagram; her instagram will remain open in her memory @choca_girl

Choca—we love you little one, thank you for always making us smile.

“ Choca was such cute girl! She had the best personality. One thing thing that stands out as a memory, was seeing her sit and stare at her fur mamma, like she was waiting for instructions. Just cute.

I called this sweetie Diva because she carried herself like she knew she was special, and when she got groomed and all dolled up she knew she looked good! So glad she got to share a bit of herself with us.
