

Cisqo Moore

November 22, 2012 - August 23, 2025

Cisqo ("Boyz", "Boyzie", "Moose", "Handsome Stud", "Old ManMoore") was born on November 22, 2012, and passed on August 23, 2025. He is survived by his pet parents, Amanda and Steve; human siblings: Kinley and Kaylee Moore; pet siblings: Oakie, Knox and Wallen (Passed away: Maggie Mae, Lillie, and Malachi). Other family members are Grandma Tanya (Passed Away: Papaw Marc) we like to think Marc was waiting on him with open arms and it was great reunion!

Cisqo's favorite toys were tennis balls, anything squeaky-it was his mission to get that dang squeaker out, ropes. His favorite activities were laying in the sun, barking at ANYTHING-person or noise didn't matter, eating anything especially peanut butter, biscuits and gravy, and pancakes, he hated anything healthy. Cisqo's least favorite thing was BATHS, he hated them he would hide if you said "let's go take a bath"

His favorite place to sleep: any rug, and the couch, he had to have a blanket to cover him though!

Favorite memories of Cisqo: bringing him home, the first time he met Steve, his reactions to any new pet member, when he would give you the side eye!
