

CoCo Barnes

October 14, 2007 - May 13, 2026

CoCo ("CoComo", "CoColottie", "C.O.") was born on October 14, 2007; and passed on May 13, 2026. She is survived by her pet parents, Regena Barnes and Tiffany Ford; human siblings, Pierre and Catteleya; pet siblings: Kona, Zues, and Monte.

CoCo's favorite toys were all toys. Cocobaby loved playing with toys. Her favorite activities were sleeping while chewing on toys, running, playing with toys, going on trips, and eating. Her least favorite things were to follow the rules, and wake up early. Her favorite place to sleep was curled up with all her toys and siblings.

Favorite memories of CoCo: Swimming at our lake house; holiday photo shoots; kisses out of the blue, just because; and lounging in the sunshine.

CoCo mi amor what a huge life in this form you had. You have always been a sovereign Queen; followed no rules and your paw prints walked to the beat of your drum. I was so honored to meet you and you me. No matter your firm and authoritative way of being you always left forgiveness at the door and allowed LOVE to flow without conditions. I learned so much from you CoCo and take your teachings with me forward as LOVE demands form I stand in the place you once were held by grace. You were ready to expand you were ready to grow larger and was unable to do it all in the form you were in. I honor your beautiful form Queen CoCo and amplify your Phoenix Rising.

For LOVE transcends all, time and space

We are infinitely connected never separate only transformed.
