

Cooper McDonald

December 13, 2006 - September 14, 2019

Cooper McDonald was born December 13, 2006 in the small town of Greenwood, Indiana. He was a beautiful, gentle boy and spent 13 loving years in the McDonald Family.

His pet parents, Butch and Denise McDonald, loved their special boy. Every morning they had their routines of laying out on the patio and soaking in the warm morning rays. A good game of tug-of-war with one of his pet brothers, Harley, was also a daily routine.

Cooper loved it when his dad would fill up his water dish with fresh clean water, than dump some ice cubes in as a special treat! But of course, nothing could beat his favorite snack of popcorn, which he often shared with his family. He loved his toys, like his stuffed babies and rawhide bones. But if there was one thing Cooper hated, it was the scary vacuum.

Cooper had a special little dance he would preform at every meal time for his dad when he was filling up his food dish. He loved meal times but more than anything, his favorite place to lay and sleep was at his parents bed.

Cooper crossed Rainbow Bridge September 14, 2019. He is survived by his pet parents, Butch and Denise McDonald, and his pet brothers, Harley and Taco McDonald. Cooper is preceded in death by his human brother Aaron

McDonald. He is also survived by Meredith McDonald, Tom, Rachel, Kaitlyn Turpin, Jamie Beatly, Chris, Henry and Reagan, Jason, Jennifer, Emma and Grace McDonald, and special friends, Ron and Pat Rains.
