Diamond's favorite toys were tug toys to play with her babies. Her favorite activities were going on rides to the park or lake to run with her family, and smelling new smells. Her least favorite thing was taking a bath. She would run from us and McDonalds. Her favorite place to sleep was the recliner.

Favorite memories of Diamond:

She loved food, always waiting till her babies ate, loved running away, playing in the yard when we chased her, loved going to the park and lake, checking out the yard to see what different smells of others were there. The love she had for everyone. Perfect pet!
