

Duke Rittenhouse

April 5, 2023

Duke ("Dukie" Dukie Dog", "Butter Cup", "Boo Boo") was adopted on Easter Sunday 2008, and passed on April 5, 2023. He is survived by his pet parent, Pamela. Other family and friends are Blake, Kim, Matt, Linda, McKenzie, Aunt LeAnne, Aunt Jessica, Uncle Jarrod, Cookie, Mike, Bill W., Anna W., Grandma Bev R., Sherri, David, Debbie K., Ashley, Robert, Beth. He was preceded in death by his pet parent, Harold; his kitty brother, Pac Man (who he was very close to), and Mason (Pamela's grandson, Duke's best buddy).

Duke's favorite toys were his blue monkey, pink and white stuffed dog bone, stuffed snake, tennis balls, and his Mickey Mouse toy. His favorite activities were walking in the back yard, riding in the car, mom holding him, belly rubs, baths, hi-fives, and chasing butterflies and bees. His least favorite things were being at home by himself, nail trims, fire alarms going off (noises of any kind), playing with hard toys, loud sounds, fire trucks, loud cars. His favorite place to sleep was with mom on her stomach.

Favorite memories of Duke: Kissing, laying on mom's lap, playing with toys, treats, tennis balls, going to the park and eating. Running in the back yard, visits from family, new toys daily, sleeping in the recliner, chasing lights on the floor, swimming in a small kiddie pool. He was always there for mom when she was down or sad, with hugs and kisses any time day or night.

“ You have been gone for 2 years now. I am looking at the footprints that Robert Loose at Loyal and True made me. I have them to hold when I cry. It's like holding you in my arms. Sorry I've not been there, but it's hard for me to get around everything. It's getting harder for people. I remember when you wouldn't let me and Dad (Harold) sit together, you would always jump between us and dare us to kiss. You were such a sweet little boy, I miss Mason so much. I hope you guys are having fun up there. I got two new pets, Smokey and Itty Bit. They popped up about 3 days after you were gone. Hey boy, mam sings a song every night. It's "Let It Be" by Olivia Newton John, just for my boys. Duke loved his stuffed animals and his treats, and unwrapping his gifts of all kinds, even his Dad's (Harold's). BIG KISSES JUST FOR YOU BOTH.

“ It's been almost a year and my life hasn't changed yet. I still miss you. Nothing has been right since you've been gone. xoxo

“ Mr. Duke,

Mommy misses you and Mason so bad that my heart has an empty space in it. I just don't feel like myself and things around here just aren't the same. I miss all those hugs and kisses from you both. Duke, I miss you all those nights we slept together and you took up the whole bed. I miss you both, Duke and Mason. Rest in Peace. Now you're in God's care. Now you have no pain or sickness. Without you both, I have no one. Momma Pam (Duke's mom) and Grandma Pam (Mason's grandma) Love Always. I will never forget you both.
