

Eagle Imel

October 18, 2004 - November 3, 2015

Eagle passed away peacefully on 11/03/15 after suffering from "Laryngeal Paralysis" for over a year. Born Sir Flying Eagle on Oct. 18, 2004 at Beauty's Babies in Upland, IN. We called him EAGLE. He was owned by Richard Imel and lived with him in Alexandria, IN. He was preceded in death by his long time play mate Diamond in 2010 also a St. Bernard. He loved when the neighbor Rosie Justice came over and shared her can of pop with him. He loved riding in the car and going to Lake Tippy and riding on the pontoon and playing in the water. He love riding to DQ and getting an ice cream cone or relaxing at home playing with his toy "squeaky" and eating his favorite food spaghetti & meatballs or KFC chicken livers. He hated having his nails cut. He slept on the bed with his master every night. He was spoiled to the max. He is so dearly missed.

“ May I pay tribute to one big hearted dog who brought so much love and dedication to his master. He left a big ole hole in Richard's heart....and I pray that the Lord will bring another little one into his household before the winter sets in.....God bless Eagle as he enters the gates of heaven...
