

Flash Cooper

April 8, 2017

Flash Cooper, 15, of Anderson, passed away on April 8, 2017. He once lived in Muncie, where he was rescued from the shelter at the age of two or three.

He like to play with toys, especially footballs and eat Rachael Ray bones (beef). When he wasn't playing, he loved to take car rides, go for walks, get his belly rubbed, and sleep in front of the stove or the front door so he could stay warm in the sun. One thing Flash didn't like was to take baths!

Flash is survived by his parents, Jeff and Lora Cooper; human siblings, Austin, Zachary, Logan, and Taylor; and cat brother, Ron. Also surviving his is aunt, Kari; uncle, Brad; cousins, Ethan, Emily, and Ely; and animal cousin, Bella.

Flash is proceeded in death by his grandparents, Barney and Donna Cooper, and Larry and Nancy Pedro; aunt, Melissa (Sis) Cooper; and sister, Madison Cooper.

"We will always remember him running in the back yard with the deflated football and the boys chasing him. Also we won't forget him biting Austin, chewing up Zachary's electronics, and loving on Logan."
