

Ginger Koger

June 12, 2011 - September 8, 2020

Ginger (“Baby Girl”) Koger passed away on September 8, 2020. Born in Martinsville, Indiana, on June 12, 2011, she was the beautiful little fur baby of Brenda and Tim Koger. She had one human brother, Jacob, and a canine brother, Eddie.

Ginger loved to go for walks, take trips in the car and cuddle with her family. Her not-so-favorite thing was not being able to go bye-bye! Her best spots to sleep were on her bed and the couch.

Her family has great memories of Ginger’s cute puppy bark, and the joy and love she brought to their home.

“ Our little girl came to us by way of rescue. When we first brought her home, she was a nervous wreck. She would shake, and go behind furniture and hide. But we knew if we didn't love her, no one else would. Well the being scared ended, and our Babygirl became the Diva of the house. Miss you so much Babygirl! We Love You!
