

Ginger Pope

October 12, 2019

Ginger Pope, also known as "Gigi" or "Gingie Bingie", was born in Anderson, Indiana, in March 2010, to pet parents Kim and Todd Pope. Ginger's favorite toys were small bones. She loved walking at parks! But when it came to bath time, she didn't like those at all! Some of Ginger's favorite foods included her pet food or any little crumb that happened to fall on the floor.

As her pet parents write, "Ginger was the sweetest little girl. She was so tiny, but mighty. Littles, her fur husband, misses her terribly. We all do."

Besides her pet parents and fur husband, Ginger is survived by human siblings, Alexis, Alaina, Amara, Austin, Avery and Angyl. Other family and friends include Macy Bonshire and Elaine Pope.

Tribute Wall

“ we miss our little furbaby gigi... this has been so hard,heartbreaking for us all. REST IN PEACE GINGER

Kim Pope - October 19, 2019 at 07:37 AM