

Gizmo Need

October 8, 2012 - November 9, 2025

Gizmo ("Gizzy") Need was born on October 8, 2012; and passed on November 9, 2025. He is survived by his pet parents, Brandee and Michael Need; human siblings, Brodey and Camden Need; pet siblings - cats: Tanner and Summer, and bunny: Taz.

Gizmo's favorite toys were an orange circle rubber toy and stuffed animals: Rudolph and T-Bone (from the Clifford cartoon). His favorite activities were going for walks and chewing on deer antler bones. His least favorite thing were loud noise and probably getting wet in the bathtub. His favorite place to sleep was in his parents' bed.

Favorite memories: Coming home for the first time as a puppy and meeting my family which also at the time was big brother dog, "Lucky". Sitting outside in the front lawn and enjoying the comfortable warm weather on a sunny day. Going on walks with my mom in our neighborhood. Finding a nice big piece of hamburger on the deck while my dad was grilling, "What a tasty treat!"
