

Gizzi Miller

January 31, 2010 - January 2, 2020

Gizzi Miller, fur baby of Cassandra Miller, was born on January 31, 2010, and passed over The Rainbow Bridge on January 2, 2020.

Gizzi had several nicknames, including Sweet Pea, Gizzi Boo, Piglet, Baby Girl, Boo-Boo and Gizzi Girl. As a puppy, her favorite toy was her reindeer. She had another favorite, a pink "bear-bear". She was a little girl who enjoyed being with her pet mom, whether it was treat time, sun bathing, snuggling, going for walks or going to work with mom. Gizzi enjoyed sleeping next to her mom, or in the sun, but bath time was not her favorite thing to do!

As her pet mom, Cassandra, shared . . ."The day I met Gizzi, I just knew I was meant to be her mommy. It was instantaneous the feeling that came over me. We were inseparable from then on! We were heading to Gatlinburg for the week to stay in a cabin and Gizzi looked sad. But the moment we said she was going too, she grabbed her bear-bear toy and placed it and herself in one of the opened luggage bags as if to say, 'I'm ready!' When she wanted my attention to get closer when snuggling, she would nudge her nose under my arm to make me lift it so I could pet her and lay up against me."

"Even though she was small, she loved to take up most of the bed. When it was time for bed, I would ask her, and she would lay on her back, put her front legs together, and beg so she could be carried to bed like a baby in one arm.

She would just stare at me the whole way there.”

As her pet mom explained, “Every day with Gizzi was a special moment and memory to be had, which makes every day my favorite memory with her!”

“ There are too many great memories of Gizzi to count. Between her begging, putting herself and her bear in the suitcase, her love of pup cups from Starbucks, and holding her while I made dinner. She had such a personality that is unmatched by any other dog I've come across.
