

Harley Joe Adams

October 31, 2007 - October 11, 2020

Harley Joe Adams (nicknamed “Harley Joe Mo Toe” and “Harley Mick A Farley”) crossed over The Rainbow Bridge on October 11, 2020. Born on October 31, 2007 in Anderson, Indiana, he was the beloved fur baby of Lydia and Kevin Adams.

His favorite toys were his toy ropes and stuffed bunny. He loved going for walks, running around the yard, and chasing his siblings. Harley hated squirrels and rabbits, and taking a bath! He always slept with his Mommy, Lydia, until he got too old to get in her bed. After that, he slept on a blanket on the floor. Some of his pet parents’ favorite memories include going for car rides, bringing home Harley’s siblings for the first time to meet him, and going to visit Mamaw and Papaw. As his pet parents shared, “All of the memories with Harley were wonderful, he will be missed so much.”

In addition to his pet parents, Harley is survived by human siblings, Alainah Harding, Walker Harding, Nevaeh Harding, Kaleb Harding, Brett McBride, Jr., Mamaw and Papaw Hardwick, Leah Adams, Amanda Shock, David Shock, Mckayla Shock and Kaden Shock. Pet siblings include Zoey and Mickey.
