

Hemi Hancock

October 11, 2015 - October 3, 2020

Hemi “Roid” Hancock was born October 11, 2015 in Beech Grove, Indiana. In January 2016, he was rescued by his dog daddy and his Uncle Chad. Hemi passed away on October 3, 2020 at his home in Anderson, Indiana, with his human daddy, Jacob Hancock. Hemi came from a large family, siblings: Newton, Chloe, Izzy, Thumblena, Odie and Paisley Mae. Grandparents: Mammie and Papaw Hancock. Aunts and uncles: Tracey and Chad Presley, Katie Hancock, Mandy and Brent Watson, and Lisa and Matt Hudson. Cousins: Kaley Presley, Tori Presley and Ayden Hancock. And fur cousins: Ace, Milo, Ebony, Tigger, Tiger, Minnie, Princess, Nonnie, Agatha Janine, Odin, Nevaeh May, Lilly Elvin, Baby Sahara, Bella Sue, Ryker Vader and Gizmo.

Hemi loved to cuddle anywhere as long as he had a blanket! He also loved to sing to the song “7 Years”. Hemi loved just being in his backyard and barking at anything in sight. He liked to go for rides to visit his grandparents and his friends. He loved to go on long rides on the golf cart and spend time at the campground. He loved all of the people that were in his life with everything in his little bean. His ultimate joys were spending the night with his grandparents, where he would hang out on his papaw’s neck for days, and Aunt Mandy and Uncle Brent to see his siblings, camp, run in the yard, snuggle and hang out in the garage. He had a special bond with his Uncle Chad, since the night he was rescued, that was unbreakable.

Hemi was preceded in death by his sister Izzy, brother Newton, and fur cousins Ebony and Gizmo. Hemi is survived by a large family of love and will be deeply missed.
