

Homer

November 1, 2019

There is a bridge connecting Heaven and Earth.

It is called Rainbow Bridge because of its many colors. Just this side of the Rainbow Bridge is a land of meadows, hills and valleys, all of it covered with lush green grass.

And so, dear Homer, we hope you are running free there...free of your pain, your suffering and the wandering you came to know on the streets.

Homer, a beloved fixture in Alexandria, Indiana, passed over The Rainbow Bridge on Friday, November 1, 2019. No one knew who his pet parents were, or if he had any brothers or sisters, but Homer had many special friends in the residents of Alexandria, Indiana.

For six years, this sweet boy roamed the town. Everyone knew who he was, but no one could catch him or give him a permanent home. Many tried, but Homer was a free spirit. He just didn't want to be confined. Home was wherever he decided to make it...sleeping on a porch or under a car, that was just his way.

As one special resident shared, "Homer's favorite activities included not only roaming the town, but he liked to 'run with the ladies' and became quite the ladies' man!"

Our hearts are broken for this special dog that was beloved by so many. You shared a spirit with a community that will treasure your memory. And for that, we celebrate your life, sweet boy.

Rest in peace, Homer.

“ Homer, you led us on a merry chase. Stopping in front my Jeep giving the sideways Homer look. " not catching me, lady". You will be forever that dog that will make me work harder to save others. You will always be in my heart, Homer. You will always be in the hearts of the people of Alexandria. Fly high buddy, run free.

“ Six years ago when I moved home on Jefferson Homer would walk every day with Pepper (Chihuahua) he loved walking around with us. When I got Skip they didn't get along but remained respectful. Homer enjoyed our neighborhood and felt safe . We all fed him when he began to need more. I believe his passing is sad however I celebrate that he was never caged or forced to live a life other than our Homer. I am so grateful that when he was ready he was safe, loved and at peace. Always in my Heart Homie Julie Barton

“ Homer loved his beggin strips and puppy chow. He would come often and see our Tazha. Even after her passing he still came by for his treats and to mark his territory.
