

Jax Peters

November 18, 2012 - August 9, 2016

Jax Peters crossed the rainbow bridge on Tuesday, August 9, 2016. He came to his forever home on November 18, 2012 where he lived with his human parents Vanessa & Troy along with human sister Kyleigh & fur sister Juicy. Jax immediately proved how full of love & joy he truly was, you could never be sad when you looked at that handsome little mug. Jax loved late night snacks with his sister Kyleigh & to play tug of war with his fur sister Juicy, he liked to "bowl" with his human brother Kameron & perch on the shoulder of his human brother Jake; Jax also loved it when his human nephew Caleb would cover up with a blanket so he could jump on top of him & attack him with licks to the face while trying to figure out how to get under the blanket with him, he was also VERY protective of his new human nephew Chase. At night Jax loved to go back & forth between his momma & sisters beds to sleep briefly in each just to make sure we both knew he loved us wholeheartedly, he was even able to finally win over the heart of his daddy!! He was most definitely a snuggler, if you were under a blanket & he noticed, it was over...he was nudging that blanket until he found a spot where he could get in & lay right up against you. There was so much personality in that little 26 pound package, he loved walking in creeks, showing off his tricks, hiding Juicys toys upstairs while she was outside, going bye bye & most importantly his family. Jax however, did not like it when his momma dressed him up in outfits & made him hold still for pictures! Jax was more than a pet to me, he was my best friend, confidant & lifeline, he brought me so much happiness & love. Even though he didn't understand most of what I was saying, he had that adorable little pug head tilt that made everyone think he did. These simple words cannot express how much my baby boy is missed & how my life will forever be changed.

“ Jaxy boy...I found a wonderful pug grief support group where people share their memories of their beloved babies. Although i normally just read, today i am posting a pic they made for me & your obit!! I also got a necklace in memory of you & it hangs on my rearview mirror. I love that i can come here & talk to you even after 3 years. I love & miss you so much!!! ”
