“ Jillian, I will always remember her as a Queen, a lady of great dignity. She always spoke her mind. She loved a good belly rub. From Tulsa, Oklahoma to Indianapolis and to Southfield MI, (her second home). She enjoyed sitting on my chest and licking my face. She enjoyed are long walks on Marshall Street in Southfield, MI. Once I took her for a long walk and I had to carry her home. She refused to walk any further. I am so grateful that God allowed me to get to know Jillian and to spend quality time with her. The most important thing is that she was a companion and friend of my daughter Clarice and granddaughter Olivia. Jillian was full of fight and had a great big heart. Clarice, Jillian loved you so much. Now that she is gone, allow her to rest in peace. Clarice, I know you are heart broken at the lost of Jillian. Please know that God knows best. Jillian has been in a lot of pain for a long time. Now she can re.st in peace. I pray that these words bring you peace. With all my Love. Your Dad. William Arthur Smith Sr.
