

Julie Delaplane

February 10, 2026

I moved out of my parents' house, and I needed a fur companion, I saw a free cat on craigslist. I met the family at Walmart parking lot and I'm very thankful I did because they just threw you at me and left. From that moment Julie became my best friend. She rode in my lap the whole way home and that was the start of me having the best cat. Julie followed mommy around all the time. Julie would lay on top of her head, on her chest or where she could find to lay on mommy. She let mommy dig her feet under her, smack her butt and pull in tail but of course in a fun-loving way. She loved McDonalds chicken nuggets. Would wake up from a dead sleep if she smelled them. She loved being outside in the summer catching snakes and leaving them on the porch. She loved to cuddle with her mommy and when mommy had Waylon, she did not like to look at Waylon but wanted to always sit next or on top of him. Daddy would leave his clothes out and she would make sure to sleep on them or rub all over them. She loved to sit on his gaming chair and then at night she would like to sit above his head and just lick his head. He must have needed a bath. You loved to play with pipe cleaners! you would have so many on the floor and I wish I was picking those up again. There are so many memories with Julie and great times. She is unreplaceable and mommy does not know what to do without you here.

Julie, you were the best cat. You were taken too soon and we miss so much here. We love you so much and can't wait to see you again.
