~ A Faithful Friend ~

KC, short for Kitty Cat, passed away peacefully after a life well lived and deeply loved. Once a stray with questionable manners and excellent survival instincts, KC found her forever home with her devoted owner, Georgia, and quickly became the queen of the castle (or at least she thought so).

KC was more than just a pet, she was a quiet and constant comfort, a familiar presence, and a unique spirit with a strong sense of personal boundaries. She leaves behind her loving owner Georgia; her dear friends Ron and David; many adoring staff who she graciously allowed to pet her (on her terms, of course); and her complicated but loyal feline frienemy, Boots, with whom she shared many side-eyes and passive-aggressive tail flicks.

She is preceded in death by her dear human friend, Buddy, who held a special place in her life.

KC will be remembered for her gentle presence, her firm opinions on when breakfast should be served, and the calm she brought simply by being nearby (and silently judging). Her absence is deeply felt, but her memory lives on in the hearts, and possibly in the scars, of all who were lucky enough to know her.

Rest well, sweet KC. You were deeply loved and always in charge.
