“ It’s been a while my precious fur baby. I think of you every day. I know you and your sister are rejoicing together now. She stayed with us for 2 more years after you went to be with Jesus. She fought the good fight and took care of us until she felt we would be ok. It’s never long enough for the ones of us who have to stay behind. She’s with you now and I can picture the happiness you both must feel to be together again.

We memorialized both of you on the back of the bike.

You were never able to go with us when you were here but you will always ride with us now in spirit.

Rest easy my precious boy. Until we meet again. 💕💕
