Mac's favorite toy was his skunk. His favorite activities: Going for car rides and riding in his stroller. Being with me and going everywhere with me. Going shopping and seeing everyone. His least favorite thing: Taking his medicine. His favorite place to sleep: Right beside me in bed.

Favorite memories: Mac loved everyone and he would meet you at the door. Mac was such a gentleman, he wouldn't get up on the couch till we said "Come" (even when I begged him and said it's ok), he would wait at the door and wait for you to ask him to come outside and come back in. He always waited for you. He would ring his bell to go outside, he would play with his skunk and always had it with him when you came in the door. His many bow ties of many different colors, he loved wearing them.

He loved to be with me and would sit in the kitchen while I was cooking dinner and just wait for me. He wouldn't leave my side. Mac was the sweetest boy and he saved me many times over.

Mac loved curling up with blankets and he would make them just the way he wanted them.

I wish he could have stayed forever with me but I will see him again when it's my time to go home to Heaven.

Mac we love you forever and we will never forget you and we miss you always.
