

Maddy Lynn Horn

November 1, 2015 - March 28, 2026

Maddy Lynn Horn crossed the rainbow bridge Saturday, March 28th 2026 surrounded by her loving family.

Born November 1st 2015, Maddy was immediately hand-picked by her loving dog mommy, Taylor Horn. Later on in Maddy's life, she welcomed a second dog mommy, Cierra Soto with open, loving paws. Maddy's mommies were the light of her life, she could always be found with, or near both of them.

Maddy is survived by her loving mommies, Taylor Horn and Cierra Soto. She is also survived by her fur-brother Milo Lee Horn. Her grandpa and grandma, Jason and Tasha Horn. Several aunts; Aunt Moe, Aunt Irelynn, Aunt Kenna, one uncle; Uncle Ryan. Her favorite cousin; Katherine Horn, and her Gigi, Heather Kennedy. Standing at the end of the bridge, Maddy was welcomed across that rainbow bridge by her mommy's late best friend, Arthur Jacob (AJ) Ryle, and her Uncle Ryan's late best friend, Dylan Kelly Stinson. They're entrusted with keeping her happy until her Mommy is reunited with her.

Dog daughter of Homer "Homie" who inspired Homer's Helpers in Alexandria; Maddy was best known for her love of barking at any and every one walking by her house. Her love for her stuffed monkeys and sticks, were only matched by her love for her Mommies. She often spent her time sunbathing with her fur-brother, enjoying outside time, and taking plenty of naps. Her favorite things to do, and play were tug of war, chasing squirrels, and doing tricks for treats.

Maddy will be remembered for decades to come. She is incredibly missed, and her family describes it as a “Maddy shaped hole” in their hearts. In Maddy’s legacy, her mommies have plans set up to donate new toys and necessities to other doggies who are waiting on their fur-ever homes. May Maddy rest peacefully where the sun is always shining, and the grass is always green.

So sorry for your loss. She is adorable. I lost my fur baby a month ago tomorrow. I didn't know a heart could break like this. 🌈🐾💔
