

Meeko Lagle

July 13, 2014 - November 11, 2023

Meeko ("Meek", "Meeks", "Meeko Boy", "Daddies' baby") was born on July 13, 2014; and passed on November 11, 2023. He is survived by his pet parents, Brandon and Randy Lagle; pet siblings, Sox (cat brother) and Sweet Pea. Other family and friends are Mimi, Papaw, Nanna, Aunts: Kyla, Harvey, Emiliy, Shellie, Dixie; Grams, and Sara.

Meeko's favorite toys were easy to squeak with his nose. His favorite activities were playing, barking, walks, car rides, laying in the sun and he LOVES SNOW. His least favorite things were baths. His favorite place to sleep was Daddies' bed or with Mimi and Papaw.

Favorite memories: Bringing him home, celebrating birthdays and holidays, car rides, watching everybody fall in love with him, watching him learn and grow, watching him pee on a guest's leg, his sunny energy, seeing him do all the things to sculpt his personality, all the kisses and cuddles, his precious big brown eyes that kept the puppy look his whole life, being cute begging for food, his head and all the bags and lunch boxes we brought in, how excited he got when we brought him new things. He would put his head in the bag and know if it was something he was allowed to have. Which, come on, we all know he snuck other food he would get from other people around the house. If you asked them they would just say "I didn't give him anything" and smile.

Meeko was a very loving and caring boy. We will continue to love him with all our hearts. We will miss him deeply. We all love you, Meeko. Go rest high on that mountain. We will see you soon. We love you!
