Favorite Memories of Money:

When we adopted Money, he was only 6 months old but he had been tortured and had scars all over his back legs. Even though someone ever hurt him so hard, he still believed in us, followed us, listened to us and laid on our laps.

He was very patient, good with other dogs, cats, children and all of our friends. He was also our best bodyguard who always watched our back while we were gardening, shoveling snow and doing all other outdoor activities.

He was also a fighter. Even though he had two tumors, he still smiled to everyone, like telling us to keep positive and life is so good because we love each other.

Money, No matter how long it will be, please wait for us by the rainbow bridge.
We will meet later. Thank you for accompanying us for 16 years. We love you and we won't forget you.
