

Morrison Eickhoff

January 29, 2024

Morrison was more than just a dog; he truly was my best friend and a constant source of comfort. Coming home to his wagging tail and playful personality was always the highlight of the day.

He was always ready for a walk. Oh, how he loved those walks!

Morrison's true legacy lies in the profound bond he shared with all of us. A true best friend - a faithful confidant who listened with judgement, comforted without words, and loved unconditionally.

He will forever be missed. I love you, Bub.

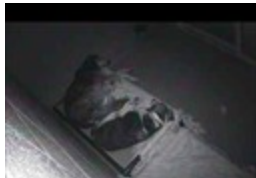

Love,

Mom, Lys, Dylan and Marlie (and Kiki)

“ I will miss my favorite member of the Eickhoff family (sorry kids!) I love that boy. Him and Jackaroo are running like crazy in doggie heaven.
