

Mr. Oliver McGee

April 14, 2011 - August 21, 2024

Mr Oliver (chonk, chonky boy, sweet boy, bubba) was born on April 14th 2011, and was adopted by his pet mom ,McKalynn, on March 19th 2021 and passed away August 21st 2024 after a short battle with cancer. Despite his nicknames he was a small little guy who just wanted to be loved on all day. He LOVED green plush toys, kicker toys, and really anything with cat nip in it. He was also probably the reason for the all the views on live bird feeds on YouTube, but nothing came close to the real thing! He never knew a stranger(unless it was a dog) and his favorite spot to sleep was anywhere mom was sitting/sleeping/working. I will forever miss our evening and weekend cuddles where he didn't care what we were doing as long as scratches and cuddles were promised(they always were). He had endless love to give and no amount of words will ever sum up how amazing of a cat and companion he truly was. I will love and miss you forever my perfect sweet boy.
