

Nia McKinney

March 4, 2021

To my beloved Nia, I will miss you so much, and all of the great times that we have had. Your life here on earth was short, but I know you are in a better place. I will always remember all the things that we've done together! Going outside, going to the pet store, and getting you your favorite treats, watching reruns of survivor in the evenings, and giving all of my attention to you. And I will miss that dearly, we have done so much with each other, and there will always be memories that will forever live inside my heart, and in my mind. I love you baby girl, and miss you so much.
