

Otto Webb

June 23, 2016 - March 20, 2020

Born in Anchorage, Alaska on June 23, 2016, Otto Webb passed over the Rainbow Bridge on March 20. Handsome boy Otto was also known as OttoBot, Bot, Toot, Cheese Boy and Fatty.

His pet mom, Madison, shared some favorite memories: Otto loved going to coffee shops in Anchorage and getting cups of whipped cream. In 2018, Madison and Otto hiked to the top of Mount Baldy in Eagle River, Alaska; on the hike down, Otto got in trouble for chasing ground squirrels!

Otto enjoyed playing with his favorite toy, Piggie. Some of his best-loved activities including screaming at rocks, cuddling with his mom and sisters, and hiking. One thing Otto didn't like was the blow dryer. And his perfect place to sleep was under the covers with his mom.

Otto is survived by his mom, Madison; human siblings Eve and Mia; and pet sibling Bruno. Other family and friends include Beth, the owner of the rescue that Otto came from; Abby, Jackie, Mikayla, and his former owner, Mike.
