

Penny O'Bryant-Young

June 1, 2020

Penny (“LOP”) O’Bryant-Young, beloved fur baby of Michelle O’Bryant and Tracie Young, passed over the Rainbow Bridge on June 1, 2020. She was adopted in 2008 from the Anderson Animal Shelter when she was just a year old.

Penny enjoyed chewing! She would destroy a bone in no time. She ran like a gazelle; her first run in the snow was so exciting. Penny also liked car rides and fast food treats. Her least favorite thing was being alone and thunderstorms.

When Penny would dream, she would kick her legs and make funny woofing noises as her floppy jaws flopped. She had the most pitiful brown eyes. She was smart – like a Houdini. We will forever miss her following us around the house, even to the bathroom!

Penny is survived by her siblings, Lucky, Boogie, Dauby and Sissy; and pet sitter, Aliena O’Brien.
