

Phoebe Maxine Lovett York

February 9, 2004 - November 14, 2019

Phoebe Maxine Lovett York (nickname "Phee") was born in Attica, Indiana, on February 9, 2004. She resided in Noblesville with her loving family.

Some of her favorite activities were following her pet mom around everywhere, snuggling in her bed or her recliner (a favorite place to sleep), and barking at anyone and everything! Phoebe did not like to be away from her mom.

Phoebe's best friend in the whole world was her brother from another mother, Maximus. Max and Phoebe were a pair and loved each other immensely. Now they are in heaven together!

Phoebe was the sweetest pup in the entire world. She had a heart of gold and was so gentle. She loved her family and was beyond loyal and loving. We have lost an incredible member of our family and our hearts are hurting, but we are happy that Phee is at peace. She was our angel pup and she will never be forgotten or replaced in our hearts.

Phoebe is survived by her loving pet parents and siblings, Ava, Dino and Paw.

Tribute Wall

LH

“ Until a new home started being built in between our two homes, Phoebe always let my two four-legged babies know when she was outside and on watch, guarding her special family and home! Phoebe will be missed.

Leah Hobbs - November 23, 2019 at 12:34 PM

MA

Aww 🥺

Margo - November 26, 2019 at 07:08 AM

MA

“ 19 files added to the tribute wall

Margo - November 23, 2019 at 08:11 AM