

Poobsie Becker

March 3, 2011 - October 14, 2025

Poobsie Becker was born on March 3, 2011; and passed on October 14, 2025. She is survived by her parents, Kayla and Joe and siblings Ellia, Leighton, and Graham

Poobsie's favorite toys were Lambchop and Gumby. Her favorite activities were eating, sleeping in the sun, and chasing squirrels. She loved visiting grandmas, going for car rides, and taking walks. She loved eating, especially, eggies, treaties, bacon, shrimp, and any leftovers she could find.

Poobsie was more than just a dog. She was a sweet girl that lived a long, happy life surrounded by friends and family that loved her. She was smart, determined and persistent which sometimes got her into trouble. She was a protector, always on alert with her ears perked up, tracking every little sound.

Miss Poobsie filled our lives with joy, laughter and happiness. We are so grateful for all the time we had with her and will cherish the memories together. She will be missed but she is in a better place now, protecting us from above. Rest in peace sweet girl.

“Poobsie was a very sweet and adorable dog who always made me smile when I saw her. She is so loved by anyone who have met her and will be missed dearly.

“Poobsie and I never really saw eye to eye... mostly because she was way shorter, but we were still civil. I remember teaching her to shake my hand and I just know that she had some of the best manners in the house. Her turkey impression was impeccable and I always admired her ability to frighten young children and nip. Even though she was not allowed in my room, because of her likeliness to leave me little brown surprises, she will always have room in my heart. I imagine that she is now in heaven chasing squirrels, nipping heels, and leaving little heavenly brown piles.

“My last memory with Poobsie she was extra nice to me, she had always kinda liked me, at least for Poobsie, but this time she wanted to sit in my lap a bit, and was very interested in what I was doing. She was a very sweet baby❤️

“ I loved Poobsie. Sometimes I ran around chasing her acting like I had a gun and she would nibble on my foot every time. A lot of times our neighbors got chased by her and tripped every time. I miss her turkey gobbles when we were eating dinner. Poobsie will forever stay warm in our hearts.

“ Poobsie bit me once and I remember it vividly. It didn't bleed and there was no pain. I was petting her normal so it was unexpected and I suppose the shock is why the memory is still so strong. I will miss Poobsie. Rest easy sweet girl

“ I didn't know Poobsie well but I knew the bond and friendship between her and Kayla was unbreakable. She was fiercely loyal and protective with a bit of an excessive bark at times but she had a huge heart and she brought happiness and companionship to so many. She will NEVER be forgotten. I am lucky to have met her and will miss her but I know she will continue to protect Kayla and be the angel watching over her parents and siblings.

“ Poobsie will surely be missed. She reluctantly accepted us as her adopted grandparents, and gradually won our hearts. She was vocal and sassy, and did not need words to express what was on her mind. Her fierce love and loyalty to her mama was remarkable, and was lovingly rewarded by the pampering she enjoyed and expected. Poobsie, we will never forget you.

“ I will miss Poobsie Ann Nicole so much!! I was always excited to visit and see her whole body wiggle as she shook her tail in excitement! I loved that she even got jealous of my own baby when we visited because I was holding her instead of petting Poobsie lol. Such a loyal and precious girl. I'll miss you sweetie girl!!

“ I’ll never forget sitting down to eat and Poobsie whining and yelping uncontrollably while doing zoomies from couch to floor.... at every meal. I love how she would stare down the neighbor kids and sometimes nip at their feet. She was a lovely girl, one-of-a-kind. I miss rubbing her velvety ears while she gave me that “unsure look.” We will always miss you girl ☐. ❤️ Dad
