Princess Diana's favorite toys were balls. Her favorite activity was chasing balls and bringing them back to you to throw again, and she would go get it again. Princess Diana didn't like baths but after a bath she would run to the couch and dry off. Her favorite place to sleep was right up under her mom, Michele Evans.

Favorite memories: Princess Diana had twin boys, Rocky and JJ. She loved playing with her boys. She also loved suckers. She would have the stick hanging out the side of her mouth. Then when she was tired, she would lay the sucker beside her and lick it from time to time. She loved taking walks.
