

Ranger Jensen

July 26, 2024

Ranger came to our family in the summer of 2007 and left us in the summer of 2024. Young in soul but old in body, he experienced many amazing bonus years with us, almost proving himself to be immortal. He leaves behind his parents, Brent and Amanda; human sisters, Jasper and Jacey; his partner in crime, Yadi; and his recent little sister, Zoey. He was preceded by the tragic death of his brother, Ziggy.

We knew Ranger would be an interesting dog, while on the car ride to his new home he coughed a mouthful of treats into Amanda's best friend's face. Ranger always had the energy of a puppy and the curiosity of a child.

His favorite snacks were bacon, pig ears, and the underwear of the last person to leave the house. He was fiercely loyal to his family, always protecting them from the dangerous squirrels in Edgewood and bringing his trophies to be admired. Ranger also loved playing fetch (usually throwing the ball himself), cuddling on the couch, or watching over his domain.

Once Ranger managed to eat an entire bottle of joint supplements, without harm. We always said that is why he was able to continue on life as active as he has. He was a loving pup and a mentor to the dogs that came after him, keeping them in line and being a true alpha.

Ranger will always be in our hearts as our "first child," and we know his ever-shedding coat will remain part of our wardrobes for years to come. He brought joy, laughter, and unconditional love to our lives, and his presence will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

You were a good boy, Ranger. You can rest now
