

Rascal Schorey

July 4, 2000 - March 12, 2017

Rascal "Buddy" Schorey, of Fishers, passed away on March 12, 2017. He was born on July 4, 2000 on a farm in Nashville, Indiana.

Rascal loved to snuggle with his dad, sleep between his parents on the couch, and play with his younger brother, Samson. His favorite toys were laser pointers and ponytail holders. When he wasn't sleeping with or playing, he loved to eat Greenies catnip treats, cantaloupe, cheese, and ice cream (if he could steal a lick). The only thing he didn't like was being away from his family. When his dad would get home, he would follow him around the house, nearly tripping him until he would sit down so they could lay together.

Rascal is survived by his parents Ken and Katie Schorey; human sister, Kelsey Sherman; cat brother, Samson; and grandparents, Ginger and Kurt Murray.

"Rascal loved to rub his face on and sleep next to our shoes, especially his dad's work boots. He also loved to be the center of attention. Whenever Samson would jump up on the couch to visit mom or dad, Rascal would come running over to make sure we pet him as well. Even when Rascal was napping, somehow he knew when his brother was spending time with us and he never wanted to miss out on the cuddles. Most of all, we'll always remember how much Rascal loved his dad. If Ken wasn't petting him, he was petting Ken. He would sit on Ken's lap or prop himself up on a pillow next to Ken's arm and reach his paw out so he was always close to his dad. Rascal's loving and unique personality is dearly missed."

“ It's been almost four weeks now since our sweet "baby" Rascal was put to sleep. Still hard to believe that when I go to Katie and Ken's house, he won't come running to greet me. I've been looking again at the pictures of him that Katie and Ken sent to me, and they bring back so many wonderful memories. I remember so well the first time I saw Rascal as a tiny kitten and fell in love with him. Even Kurt's heart melted and said it was ok to bring him home with us even though he always said we'd never have a cat. He knew how much Katie, Kelsey, and I wanted him. Once he was home with us, even Barney, our special dog, cared for and loved Rascal. As the years went by, Rascal was really my baby, and he slept on me and would also lay wrapped around my neck as I would be working in the kitchen, purring the whole time. Another cute memory is when I would cut up cantelope and Rascal would go crazy, scarfing down each piece we would lay before him. He was also a stinker and would poop outside his litter box - I don't know how many times I talked with the vet about his bathroom issues! I remember that we really had to watch Rascal when we opened the door, because he would dart out, and the girls and I or Kurt and I had to go out looking for him under the bushes, etc. He was very sneaky! When Katie brought adorable little Samson home, I was surprised and happy at how Rascal played with him and was good to him for the most part - there were a few good fights, too. Finally, Rascal and Samson went to live with Katie and Ken, their new Mom and Dad. I've never seen the cats so happy. Katie took such good care of Rascal, and continues to do so for Samson. I know how much Rascal cared for Katie, but he absolutely was in love with Ken! He followed him everywhere and always wanted to cuddle with him. Rascal was a very special family member. Our lives are richer because of him, and he is truly missed. Looking at all of Rascal's pictures make me feel a bit sad, but mostly bring me joy! I'm thankful that Katie and Ken have their Samson to make more memories with.
