

Rudyard Roxbury Feral

March 9, 2022

Rudyard Roxbury “Rudy” Feral 2014?-2022

Rudy, also known as “Roary” and “The Buddy Dude” crossed the Rainbow Bridge while snuggled on his guy’s arm in the morning on March 9, 2022. He died as a result of complications of lymphoma.

Rudy was born in Southern California and relocated to Muncie in 2015 to provide companionship to another cat, Mistofela, who passed in 2019. His humans, Dave and Jamie-Sue; as well as his newer cat companion, Fleur, The Empress Petunia von Fuzzy-Bottoms, survive him. Other friends survive him as well, especially Janel, Susie, and Bridget.

Rudy was a gentle soul who enjoyed sleep like it was his job. Mice were given a free pass by him. He loved little more than to curl up in a nice, warm spot.

He was never rude or crude, unless it was midnight—then he would sing the song of his Himalayan breed from the bathtub. For the acoustics. Treats and wet food were consumed voraciously and he was known to steal the odd French fry. Only one French fry, though.

We are grateful to Marty Rector for bringing him into our lives and Boyce and Maplewood Animal Clinics for their care.

And remember: "Be nice. Be kind. Always be Big Buddy Dude-in'."

Arrangements were entrusted to Loyal and True of Anderson. Memorial donations may be made to ARF, 1209 W Riggins Rd, Muncie, IN 47303.
