

Scooby Doo McBride

December 15, 2008 - November 21, 2022

Scooby Doo ("Scoob", "Scoober") McBride was born on December 15, 2008, and passed on November 21, 2022. He is survived by his pet parents, Marilyn and Don McBride; human siblings: Susan and Paul, Terry and Marty, and his 4-legged nephews, Leroy and Beau.

Scooby's favorite toys were anything stuffed, so he could pull the stuffing out. His favorite activities were playing with his human sibling, Marty; getting Kleenex out of pockets and purses, taking walks, and traveling (until recently). His least favorite things were visiting the vet's office and going outside in the rain. His favorite place to sleep was in bed with mom or in his bed under the buffet.

Favorite memories: Our walks 2 to 3 times a day. How he loved his afternoon snacks (paper towel roll with small amount of dog food with end folded). He would shake it until food fell out (even when he didn't feel good, he would enjoy it.) He loved the Schwan man and would get excited when he arrived.
